A. Personal Statement.

Dr. Gloth has extensive experience in the development of clinical practices in multiple settings. He has directed the outpatient program in Geriatrics at John Hopkins and was president and CEO of a private geriatrics medical practice for over a decade. Dr. Gloth's experiences include medical oversight of a long-term care chain, medical directorships of hospice, inpatient acute geriatrics units, nursing homes, assisted living facilities and a continuing care retirement community. Dr. Gloth has served on multiple practice advisory boards and committees for the development of national medical practice guidelines. He has, also, worked as a consultant for large healthcare systems on various geriatrics projects. Dr. Gloth has served as a Division Director for Geriatrics at a teaching hospital and developed an award-winning geriatrics fellowship program that he directed for 6 years. Finally, Dr. Gloth owned an electronic medical records company from 1998-2010 and has been part of the academic faculty at Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine since 1990, as well as 3 other medical schools during that time.
